Inspiration: Paper

This weekly Playgroup series takes children on a voyage through the multiple possibilities offered to us through exploring the world of paper.

The choice for Paper to inspire this upcoming Playgroup series centres on the unlimited opportunities for our team to provide children with meaningful, inspiring, creative experiences rich in learning potential.

Paper is an open-ended material, that provides us with opportunities to explore mark making, sound, light and shadow, textures and reflections taking children on a journey rich in learning potential from fine motor skills, early literacy exposure and a multitude of sensory explorations.

Parents may encounter ways paper can be used at home to further support children's natural curiosity and desire to connect with materials and use them in increasingly creative and interesting ways.

Our Atelier Facilitators will develop children's experiences each week, whilst offering opportunities to repeat some of the experiences and try new ways of approaching things. This supports the development of a sense of security and connection throughout the programme and also a chance to re-test our theories and deepen our initial understandings.

Join us as we challenge our understanding of the many possibilities paper offers us to drive our learning and be inspired!
